¹This table reflects the 40,877 cases sentenced subsequent to October 1, 2005, with court documentation cumulatively received, coded, and edited at the U.S. Sentencing Commission by June 1, 2006. Of this total, there are 1,369 cases excluded for one of two general reasons. Some excluded cases involve certain Class A misdemeanors or other offenses which do not reference a sentencing guideline. Other excluded cases have information missing from the submitted documents that prevents the comparison of the sentence and the guideline range. As missing documents are received, subsequent U.S. Sentencing Commission data releases will incorporate the new information.

²All cases with departures outside of the guideline range which do not cite as a reason either U.S. v. Booker, 18 U.S.C. § 3553, or factors or reasons specifically prohibited in the provisions, policy statements, or commentary of the federal Guidelines Manual.

³All cases with a sentence outside of the guideline range which includes both a departure (see footnote 2) as well as a sentence outside the guideline system mentioning either U.S. v. Booker, 18 U.S.C. § 3553, or related factors as a reason for sentencing outside of the guideline system.

⁴All cases with a sentence outside of the guideline range with no departure indicated and which cite U.S. v. Booker, 18 U.S.C. § 3553, or related factors as one of the reasons for sentencing of the guideline system.

⁵All cases sentenced outside of the guideline range that cannot be classified into any of the three previous outside of the range categories. This category includes for example, cases in which no reason is provided for a sentence outside of the guideline range.

⁶Cases with a reason for departure indicating that the prosecution initiates, proposes, or stipulates to a sentence outside of the guideline range, either pursuant to a plea agreement or as part of a non-plea negotiation with the defendant.

Total number of guidelines applied: 41,134

Number of cases with at least one guideline applied: 38,093

¹Of the 40,877 cases, 2,784 were excluded due to missing guideline applied. The total for any guideline can exceed that for primary guideline because a case can have several guidelines applied, but only one primary guideline.

²Combines two outside-of-the-range categories: 1) cases with departures which do not cite either U.S. v. Booker, 18 U.S.C. § 3553, or related factors specifically prohibited in the provisions, policy statements, or commentary of the federal Guidelines Manual; and, 2) cases which include a departure as well as a sentence outside the guideline system mentioning U.S. v. Booker, 18 U.S.C. § 3553, or related factors as a reason for sentencing outside the guideline system.

³Combines two outside-of-the-range categories: 1) cases without a departure that cite U.S. v. Booker, 18 U.S.C. § 3553, or related factors as a reason for sentencing outside the guideline system; and 2) outside-of-the-range cases that cannot be classified into any other category. The latter category includes outside-of-the-range cases with no reason provided for a sentence outside the guideline range.

⁴Cases with a reason for departure indicating that the prosecution initiates, proposes, or stipulates to a sentence outside of the guideline range, either pursuant to a plea agreement or as part of a non-plea negotiation with the defendant. Note that §5K3.1 (Early Disposition Program) cases are included in this category.

¹Of the 40,877 cases, 5,636 received a §5K1.1 substantial assistance departure. Of these, 5,376 had complete guideline application information. Due to an inablility to calculate the extent of departure for cases with a guideline minimum of life, an additional 49 cases were also excluded from this table. Furthermore, eight cases were excluded due to several logical criteria. Of the remaining 5,319 cases, 17 were excluded due to one or both of the following reasons: missing primary offense category (0) or missing sentence information (17). Note that the information presented in this table does include sentences of probation, but does not include any time of alternative confinement as defined in USSG §5C1.1. Descriptions of variables used in this table are provided in Appendix A.

¹Of the 40,877 cases, 340 received an above the guideline range departure. Of these, 319 had complete guideline application information. Due to an inablility to calculate the extent of departure for cases with a sentence of life, an additional one case was also excluded from this table. Furthermore, zero cases were excluded due to several logical criteria. Of the remaining 318 cases, four were excluded due to one or both of the following reasons: missing primary offense category (0) or missing sentence information (4). Note that the information presented in this table does not include any time of alternative confinement as defined in USSG §5C1.1. Descriptions of variables used in this table are provided in Appendix A.
